

March 3-7, 2025

This last week was full of much excitement: coin duel, pizza, and ice cream sundaes. This next week is Read Across America week. Hopefully we will all be excited to “taste” some new books. Here are the notes for the week:

★ Reminders:

- We are continuing to support our mission in Bend, Oregon.
- We sing Sunday, March 9th at Good Shepherd at 9:00am.
- Lenten services start this Wednesday with Ash Wednesday. Services are at 3:45pm and 6:30pm. There is dinner between the two services in the church basement.

★ Class Pet

- Thank you Xavier for bringing our class pet home this weekend!

★ Market Day

- We will be doing a market day in first grade. Please make sure the note is back in time for us to make our advertisement posters on Wednesday.

★ Coin Duel!

- I am so proud of how much our class participated in raising money for the new playground. If you haven't heard, grades 5-8 had the most coins, but we had the most overall money value. The school as a whole raised close to $1,900. God surely blessed all our efforts!

★ Book tasting

- We will be exploring different genres of books in our book tasting. If you have any books you want to send it for the different genres, I am allowing the kids to explore that genre throughout the day.
 - Monday: Fiction books
 - Tuesday: Nonfiction books
 - Wednesday: Biographies
 - Thursday: Poetry

★ Here's what we will be learning this week:

- Math we will be exploring fractions, time, and adding money without regrouping.
- Superkids we will learn about contractions without NOT, book tasting different genres, finishing how-to writing, and working on comprehension.

- Christ Light we will learn the Parable of the Money Bags and the Parable of the Vineyard Workers.
- Social Studies we will make advertisement posters and learn about wants/needs.
- Music we will practice do re mi and so, high and low singing, and listening/interpreting music.
- Gym class we will be a frisbee unit.
